

BROOKFIELD HIGH

BH Bulletin 2023-'24 Vol.1

Message from the Vice - Principal

Greetings!

I am proud to present the first newsletter, BH Bulletin, of this academic year 2023-'24. This edition brings our students' activities, achievements, art, and literary talents to the fore.

The core purpose of Brookfield High is to teach our students to think and not what to think. We encourage our students to 'make a difference' in all they do. Along with the subjects our students also learn the essential lessons for living, such as empathy, loyalty, mutual respect and morality. Since without these values education lacks its purpose.

My heart fills with pleasure when I perceive the milestones achieved by our students. Our faculty team and myself strive to work hard so that our students reach further heights of excellence in all their endeavours.

I appreciate the editorial team on bringing out this edition of "BH Bulletin". My wishes to all the contributors of this newsletter.

Ms.Keerthi Sachin
Vice Principal.

A warm good afternoon to respected Chairman sir, Director madam, teachers, beloved friends and my fellow council members. Today, I am deeply honored and humbled to stand before you all as the head boy of Brookfield High for the academic session 2023-24. First and foremost, I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to my teachers, who always believed in me and have thus entrusted this tremendous responsibility on me.

I have been bestowed with the responsibility of leading the student council and my fellow friends by example. I’m aware that it’s not a piece of cake, but I'm ready to take it on. My teachers have always encouraged me to step outside my comfort zone and reach new heights of growth. Their passion to think critically, question and never stop at mediocrity has ignited a fire in me, which I promise to carry forward.

I am filled with a sense of purpose and determination to serve you all to the best of my abilities. With your unwavering support and cooperation, together, we will embark on a journey of growth, success, and memorable experiences.

Thank you once again for this incredible honour. I am excited to embark on this new chapter, to lead by example, and to make a positive difference in the lives of my fellow students and community. I am optimistic of the future that lays ahead of us. Together, let us make this year the memorable one. Thank you.

Sands of Time

Events come and events go,

We cannot bring them back,

This just goes on to show,

Time never comes back.

Time brings a lot of change,

Right from your type of clothing,

To your budget range,

As without change there ^{is absolutely} ~~is~~ nothing.

Time has endured the ancient and the modern,

The evil and the best,

So there is much we can learn,

From its knowledge chest.

Over the sand of time,

Men have lived and accomplished,

But when their ~~at~~ clock times chime,

All of them have perished.

If we turn the pages of history,

Without fail we shall find,

Many an unsolved mystery,

Which still puzzles the mind.

The sand of time teaches us,

Not to repeat the evil of the past,

And the moral runs thus -

Do good at till ^{breath your} ~~your~~ last.

Men may come ~~and~~ and men may go,

But time goes on for ever,

People ^{Mankind} may rise or may stoop low,

But sand of time stops never.
