Financial Literacy Quiz

Financial literacy is the cornerstone of making sound financial decisions....

And that's why we at Brookfield High give our Grade 9 and 10 students the opportunity to attend Financial Literacy classes conducted by Qshala and be better than the rest of the world.

By understanding the principles of budgeting, saving, investing, and debt management, they can take control of their financial destinies.

To wrap up on what they've learnt, they were assessed by a Quiz conducted by the Qshala team in which they came out with flying colours. Our students really amazed us on how they could connect their analytical, logical and financial knowledge to crack those questions.

Truly, the investment we make in our students pays dividends throughout their lifetime.
